ROARING '20S

Ted Simmons and T.C. Boyle

Inspired by Santa Barbara-based writer T.C. Boyle's novel Riven Rock, RIVEN ROCK REFRACTED was a memorable evening hosted by the SANTA BARBARA MUSEUM OF ART's SmART Families program. The event—held at the Ridley-Tree Education Center—celebrated art, literature, and education and raised more than $115,000 for the museum. The madness of Boyle's novel came to life with 1920s-inspired decor, fashion, food, cocktails, and UCSB graduate students' artwork. PHOTOS BY MARY JANE PHOTOGRAPHY

A DIVINE NIGHT

New State Street hot spot Cadiz Restaurant was transformed into cloud nine for ANGELS FOSTER CARE's annual fund-raiser, HEAVEN ON EARTH. The nonprofit organization, which saves abused, neglected, and abandoned babies in Santa Barbara County, hosted the soiree—complete with a decadent dinner and tunes by musician Kerri Sanford and DJ Gavin Roy—to raise money to aid the foundation in their ongoing efforts. MAD MEN

The Granada was transformed into a 1950s fete for "AN AFTERNOON WITH MATTHEW WEINER," a talk led by the creator and producer of the TV series Mad Men. Presented by UCSB ARTS & LECTURES and sponsored by Lynda.com, the event began with a lively discussion and ended with a cocktail party for guests who donned period attire inspired by the show.
